

TRUE or FALSE?

		TRUE or FALSE?
1	Income tax was introduced to Britain in 1799 as a temporary measure to pay for the French Revolutionary Wars.
2	Opened in January 1990 before the end of the Soviet Union, the largest McDonald's restaurant in the world was situated in Moscow's Pushkin Square for 22 years.
3	Although work is currently being conducted on the tower itself, the Big Ben bell was cast so well that it has never needed to be repaired.
4	The first time people were ever asked to 'spend a penny' in order to go to the toilet was to use George Jennings' "Monkey Closet" at the Great Exhibition of 1851.
5	Dutch legal scholar Hugo Grotius, who later became the Swedish ambassador to France, was jailed for reading illicit literature on Easter Sunday.
6	During the Hundred Years War, French and British forces were involved in a battle over barrels of herrings shortly before the start of Lent in 1429.
7	Napoleon Bonaparte's escape from exile on Elba was only possible due to the invention of the inflatable dinghy two years earlier.
8	Sidney Poitier was the first African-American to win an Oscar, for his role in Lilies of the Field in 1964.
9	The first confirmed case of Spanish Flu was identified at Camp Funston in Fort Riley, Kansas, in March 1918.
10	Despite its prevalence in popular culture, the FBI have never published a 10 Most Wanted Fugitives list.

TRUE or FALSE?

		TRUE or FALSE?
1	Income tax was introduced to Britain in 1799 as a temporary measure to pay for the French Revolutionary Wars.	TRUE
2	Opened in January 1990 before the end of the Soviet Union, the largest McDonald's restaurant in the world was situated in Moscow's Pushkin Square for 22 years.	TRUE
3	Although work is currently being conducted on the tower itself, the Big Ben bell was cast so well that it has never needed to be repaired.	FALSE It cracked after just 2 months of use but has stayed the same since then
4	The first time people were ever asked to 'spend a penny' in order to go to the toilet was to use George Jennings' "Monkey Closet" at the Great Exhibition of 1851.	TRUE
5	Dutch legal scholar Hugo Grotius, who later became the Swedish ambassador to France, was jailed for reading illicit literature on Easter Sunday.	FALSE He was imprisoned for intra-Calvinist disputes but escaped prison inside a book chest on library change-over day
6	During the Hundred Years War, French and British forces were involved in a battle over barrels of herrings shortly before the start of Lent in 1429.	TRUE
7	Napoleon Bonaparte's escape from exile on Elba was only possible due to the invention of the inflatable dinghy two years earlier.	FALSE He escaped on the brig Inconstant
8	Sidney Poitier was the first African-American to win an Oscar, for his role in Lilies of the Field in 1964.	FALSE Hattie McDaniel won Best Supporting Actress in 1940 for Gone With The Wind
9	The first confirmed case of Spanish Flu was identified at Camp Funston in Fort Riley, Kansas, in March 1918.	TRUE
10	Despite its prevalence in popular culture, the FBI has never published a 10 Most Wanted Fugitives list.	FALSE First published in 1950