

ANIMALS

Every question or answer has a tentative link to a type of animal.

1	What type of animal was Laika, the first animal to orbit the Earth?
2	What is the surname of the stout character who often personifies Britain (England in particular) in political cartoons?
3	The Protestant historian John Foxe published Actes and Monuments in 1563. It is better known as the book of...what?
4	What is the surname of the current president of the Historical Association?
5	The last private resident of number 10 Downing Street was Mr...what?
6	What is the surname of the sea captain who circumnavigated the globe aboard the Golden Hind ?
7	Which locomotive holds the world speed record for steam, set on 3 July 1938?
8	The Royal Hospital Chelsea, the Royal Naval College Greenwich, and the south front of Hampton Court Palace were designed by which architect? (surname only!)
9	James Stagg persuaded Eisenhower to change the date of the D-Day landings from the 5th to the 6th of June. What was Stagg's job?
10	What is the surname of the American inventor who popularised the revolver firearm by using interchangeable parts?

ANIMALS

Every question or answer has a tentative link to a type of animal.

1	What type of animal was Laika, the first animal to orbit the Earth?	Dog
2	What is the surname of the stout character who often personifies Britain (England in particular) in political cartoons?	Bull
3	The Protestant historian John Foxe published Actes and Monuments in 1563. It is better known as the book of...what?	Martyrs
4	What is the surname of the current president of the Historical Association?	Badger
5	The last private resident of number 10 Downing Street was Mr...what?	Chicken
6	What is the surname of the sea captain who circumnavigated the globe aboard the Golden Hind ?	Drake
7	Which locomotive holds the world speed record for steam, set on 3 July 1938?	Mallard
8	The Royal Hospital Chelsea, the Royal Naval College Greenwich, and the south front of Hampton Court Palace were designed by which architect? (surname only!)	Wren
9	James Stagg persuaded Eisenhower to change the date of the D-Day landings from the 5th to the 6th of June. What was Stagg's job?	Meteorologist
10	What is the surname of the American inventor who popularised the revolver firearm by using interchangeable parts?	Colt